

Gergana Yaneva is the Development Manager of CORPluS. She has a lot of experience volunteering for various causes including children at risk, quality of education and integration of refugees both in Bulgaria and in countries around the world such as Singapore, Tanzania, Ecuador and Peru. Prior to CORPluS, Gergana was the Program Coordinator at the York Rotract Club and the Social Involvement Coordinator of Red Cross Youth at the National University of Singapore. Her area of expertise is event organization and fundraising.

Gergana has a Bachelor's degree in Politics and International Relations from the University of York, United Kingdom.